Little Alice Josephine, star of the critically acclaimed "Ali in Wonderland" (released June 2011), is nearly 7 months old now. For Halloween she produced a remake of "Snow White" much to the delight of her adoring fans. Her latest project, "Sleeping Beauty," finds the blond-haired darling resisting her new sleep schedule as her mom desperately wishes for one uninterrupted night of rest. Look for her in her next project "The Little Mermaid" coming in Summer 2012.

The brothers Zasada teamed up for a remake of "The Three Musketeers" as they battled their way through 2011. Justin, the thinker and musician, skillfully crafts boredom-busting play scenarios for his brothers and delights his sister with the sounds of his clarinet practices. Timothy, the tenderhearted muscle, became a Cub Scout this year and has become his sister's number one bodyguard. Nathan, the lovable dimpled dynamo, has sprouted in inches and found his niche as big brother by always showering his baby sister with hugs and kisses.

Justin: "Everyone likes Ali.

That's just cause they haven't seen her dark side."

“Blessings for Our Baby Girl” Our little angel was welcomed into our spiritual family at St. John the Evangelist Parish in St. John, Indiana, on July 3rd when we celebrated her Baptism. Deacon Bill will never forget the first time he administered the sacrament. Ali had a LOT to say to him, and she said it OUT LOUD, during her celebration!

“A Scout is Born” Those who generously assisted with the popcorn sales effort are well aware that Timothy is now a Cub Scout pledging “to do my best, do my duty to God and my country, to help other people and to obey the law of the Pack.”
