

THE WORLD'S BEST-READ
MAGAZINE

Zasada's Digest

EXCLUSIVE

MERRY CHRISTMAS And HAPPY NEW YEAR

PAGE 25

TRIBUTE
Joseph "Dude" Zasada, Jr.

8/8/1941 – 2/17/2010

December 2010
$12.25

06152011

hello

After a bit of a reprieve, we are very excited to announce that the crib, onesies, diapers, wipes, car seats, rattles, burp cloths ... and so much more (!!!) will be coming out of storage in the Zasada house. Baby Zasada is set to arrive on the scene June 15, 2011. It's going to be one crazy, sleepless summer – for mom and dad at least.

We bid a fond farewell to Todd's dad in February. Grandpa Dude was certainly one of a kind!

goodbye

How to Reach Us

>> Letters to the Editor

The Zasada Family
 zasadaj@marykay.com
 www.myzasada.com

2009

*"Fourth grade is a grade of opportunities.
There's Holy Eucharist,
Band, Spell Bowl..."*
-Justin

Quotes
Q

Tim: "Nate, it's not called ammo. It's called ah-mew-tion."

Justin: "It's the same thing. Ammo is short for ah-mew-tion."

"No fair! Cats get to eat whenever they want. But people have to wait."

-Timothy

Justin: "(sniff, sniff) Did you go to the bathroom or something?"

Timothy, matter of factly: "No, it's probably just my breath."

T: "Who is great-great-great-great-great-grandpa?"

J: "Adam."

T: "Adam who?"

J: "Adam & Eve. That Adam."

T: "He's a Zasada?!"

J: "He's a everyone!"

Justin while watching football with Todd: "Don't you think it's quite embarrassing to have your weight shown up there?"

Todd:
"This room is getting messier every day."

Justin:
"Sometimes that's just how life is."

Nathan while getting his sunscreen applied:

"Mom - when you stand in the shade, do you get sunburn?"

Timothy, always quick to answer:

"No. It's called sunburn, not shadeburn."

... We Might Not Have Told You (2010)

All 3 boys were in school all day this year. Unfortunately that didn't translate into as much free time as Julie had hoped but the peace and quiet is VERY welcome.

Todd had his 18th anniversary at NB Coatings, formerly Rohm & Haas, formerly Morton, formerly...you get the point.

We took a family vacation at the Great Wolf Lodge in the Dells again. Next year its off to Disneyland and Legoland for spring break 2011.

Justin joined the Junior Band as a clarinet player. He took to it very well and very quickly. He performed in his first school concert too. His favorite song to play so far is the First Christmas March.

Nathan was in his first wedding as a ring bearer for his Uncle Kevin.

It was a stage debut for Timothy as Shepherd #1 in The Nativity Story with his youth ministry pals.

Home repairs – as opposed to cosmetic improvements – were all the rage: a pool liner, pool pump, pool cover, and dryer coils just to name a non-glamorous few.

Todd's only Sox game was a rain out. He won a hat and free "nosebleed" tickets during a park promotion but never used them because he was too upset with the team's performance the rest of the year!

Nathan lost his 1st (2nd, 3rd & 4th) tooth this year. All he wants for Christmas...

Julie's Lifehouse concert tally was 3 plus 1 in-store mini-show w/autographs.

We made our first family retreat with CCLI at Green Lake in Wisconsin. Mixed reviews from the boys but mom & dad had a great time.

Another first for Justin was First Holy Communion in September.

Timothy was a full-fledged swimmer this summer thanks to confidence gained from goggles and being able to tip-toe across the pool.

See you in 2011!

